

Chicago Classical Guitar Society

Membership Benefits

Newsletter

The society's bimonthly newsletter, Chicago Guitar, provides information about guitar-related activities in the Chicago area and throughout the world and contains articles and news items that provide insight into the guitar and its music.

Concerts

Each year, the society sponsors concerts featuring world-class performers, as well as up-and-coming young performers and talented local artists.

Master Classes

The society also schedules master classes with some guest performers. Members are welcome to perform in the classes or attend as auditors.

Evaluated Recitals

Several times a year, the society sponsors evaluated recitals at which students may perform in a recital setting for written evaluation by a panel of teachers.

Other Activities

The society periodically schedules other activities, such as lectures and social events. In addition, the society publishes a directory of Chicago-area classical guitar teachers and schools.
